

We are currently undergoing maintenance on some services, which may temporarily affect access to subscription accounts and the E-edition. We apologize for any inconvenience and appreciate your patience as we work to resolve the issues.

https://buffalonews.com/entertainment/movies/article_043d558c-abe4-5739-98b2-ce7bee8ea5fc.html

Mohawk Place documentary to be shown at Infringement Festival

By Christopher Schobert

Jul 21, 2014

"Vultures," which will be shown at the Buffalo Infringement Festival, honed in on the final days of Mohawk Place. (John Hickey/Buffalo News file photo)

By Christopher Schobert

The Buffalo Infringement Festival is a summer tradition that finds new ways to grow, innovate and surprise each year. The schedule for the 11th annual festival is utterly epic, but for film fans, one night to keep an eye on is July 25.

The “First Friday Film Fiesta,” running from 7 to 9:30 p.m. July 25 in Hallwalls Contemporary Arts Center, features a number of movies, including “Bring Me Your Vultures” at 8:15 p.m.

“Vultures” is a documentary looking at the last days of Mohawk Place, the iconic concert venue which, we recently heard, will rise from the dead in a few weeks. That’s wonderful news, but as “Bring Me Your Vultures” should demonstrate, Mohawk Part II will have a lot to live up to.

For more on the 11th annual Infringement Festival, visit www.infringebuffalo.org.